The Australian Folklore Association Inc.

The history of the Association and of its taking over of the journal, Australian Folklore, are set out, together with the Association's Constitution, in Journal No. 7 (1992), pp. 151–160. Apart from its Newsletters and the meetings of its Executive, it has gained representation on the Board of the Australian Folk Trust Inc., which is also a co-sponsor of its (inter-) national conferences. More recently it has collaborated with various Australian universities in publication and conference activities, as well as with the Victorian Folklife Association. It has also had much dialogue with folklore scholars and academics worldwide.

The earlier activities of the Association are also given, in outline, in The Oxford Companion to Australian Folklore, ed. by Gwenda Beed Davey and Graham Seal (Melbourne: Oxford University Press, 1993), pp. 27-28.

The Australian Folklore Association exists for the purposes outlined in its Constitution (given in Australian Folklore No. 7, 1992 on pp. 155-160). Applications for membership, subscriptions to the Association, etc., should be sent to the Secretary (address below).
